INTERNATIONAL

Historic Agreement On Name Change

- ❖ Greece and Macedonia signed a historic preliminary agreement to rename the country the Republic of North Macedonia.
- ❖ It ended a row that has poisoned relations between the two neighbors since 1991.
- ❖ The agreement will also enable the landlocked state to start proceedings and eventually join the EU and NATO.
- ❖ The agreement still requires the approval of both parliaments and a referendum in Macedonia.

- ❖ Since 1991, Athens has objected to its neighbor being called Macedonia because it has its own northern province of the same name, which in ancient times was the cradle of Alexander the Great's empire -- a source of intense pride for modern-day Greeks.

State of emergency declared - Papua New Guinea

- ❖ The Prime Minister of Papua New Guinea has declared a nine-month state of emergency in the country's rugged Southern Highlands province in response to several days of riots.
- ❖ The small resource-rich Pacific nation, which is due to host the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) forum in November 2018, has long struggled with violence and lawlessness.
- ❖ The riots are due to a court ruling that upheld the election of the regional governor William Powi, amid accusations of vote rigging
- ❖ Thomas Eluh, a former policeman and acting administrator in the province, has been given constitutional emergency powers.

San Francisco's first black woman

- ❖ London Breed made history when she became the first black woman (African-American) to be elected mayor of San Francisco.
- ❖ She defeated a rival who was seeking to become the first openly gay man in the position.
- ❖ She will serve as mayor until 2020, finishing out the rest of Lee's term.
- ❖ Breed is only the second woman to hold the position. Dianne Feinstein was the first woman appointed to the same job in 1978.

ECONOMY

Fitch cuts viability ratings

- ❖ Rating agency Fitch has downgraded the viability ratings (VRs) of State Bank of India (SBI) and Bank of Baroda (BoB).
- ❖ Fitch downgraded the VRs of SBI and BoB by one-notch to 'BB+' and 'BB', respectively.
- ❖ It cited the lenders' weakened risk profile due to poor asset quality and the vulnerability of their capital buffers to moderate shocks.
- ❖ As many as 19 of India's 21 state banks reported losses in the last fiscal, cumulatively wiping out almost all of the government's $ 13 billion capital injections during the year.

- ❖ Fitch, which has a negative sector outlook on Indian banks, however, affirmed the 'BBB' Long-Term Issuer Default Ratings (IDRs) of SBI, BoB, Canara Bank and Bank of India (BoI) with a stable outlook.

BBB rating

- ❖ A BBB rating reflects an opinion that the issuer has the current capacity to meet its debt obligations but faces more solvency risk than an A-rated issue and less than a BB-rated issue if business, financial, or economic conditions change measurably.
